Exhibitor testimonials

"The show is going great, I love it!
We've had a lot of new contacts from distributors, retailers and private companies".

Arch. Andrea Bergianti, Benelli, Wine Eat Italy

"All of our companies were successful in getting both contacts and valuable market information that they need to actually enter the Polish market.
I'm determined to take part next year with a bigger group of Czech food producers".

Adam Suchanek, Director, CzechTrade Warsaw

Business matchmaking

WorldFood Warsaw offers a free matchmaking service. We guarantee an individual approach to each and every exhibitor, by providing meeting schedules according to each company's requests and preferences. This individual approach enables participants to make better use of their time at the exhibition and allows them to meet with important buyers who match their business specifications.
