What is Makandulo?

Makandulo is a synthesis of simplicity, luxury, and naturalness. These are unique candles, crafted with a love for nature. The simplicity of style and exceptional aromas converge in our products, which are made from 100% natural ingredients, creating ecological, vegan products with the powers of aromatherapy. The foundation of our candles is ecological palm and soy wax - the source of a beautiful "frost effect," which is evidence of natural wax crystallization. Each product is handcrafted with utmost care, emphasizing our originality.

Simple and Pure Ingredients

The uniqueness of our products stems not only from the authentic production process but also from the meticulously chosen ingredients. We use entirely natural, certified palm and soy waxes from sustainable crops. The color and scent of our candles come from the supercritical extraction of plants, guaranteeing the highest purity and the absence of harmful organic substances and heavy metals. We enrich our products with natural essential oils, adding unique fragrances.
